Crafting Hearts is an art club dedicated to giving children the freedom to express themselves creatively in a safe, supportive, and judgment-free space. Through drawing, painting, crafting, and hands-on creativity, we encourage kids to explore their emotions, build confidence, and discover their unique voices. Our mission is to nurture both artistic expression and healthy mental well-being by helping children understand that their feelings matter—and that creativity can be a powerful way to share them. All our sessions also incorporate STEM elements to help children understand how art fits into every part of our lives. At Crafting Hearts, every child is welcomed, heard, and encouraged to create from the heart. 🎨❤️
